GLENBROOK SOUTH HIGH SCHOOL

Office of the Principal

Dear Guest of the 1997 Glenbrook Graduating Class:

Welcome to the 1997 Commencement exercises! This rite of passage honors four years of high school education. We attach a high value to that education and believe that you do the same. That value is best represented by a dignified graduation ceremony, one which the graduates can cherish with pride. Help us to assure that dignity by refraining from any of those activities which too easily tarnish a joyous occasion:

- a. Cheering or applauding for individual graduates;
- b. Whistling or shouting;
- c. Leaving your seat at any time or allowing young children to do the same before the conclusion of the ceremony.

Your cooperation with this request is perhaps the finest tribute you can pay to the graduates in this, their hour of commencement.

On behalf of the Class of 1997, I thank you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "David H. Smith".

David H. Smith
Principal
